"La la la!" sang the waitress as she handed me my drink in a coconut shell. Hawaii, such a magnificent place to be. The water hitting the soft, chilled peices of sand as they squish between my toes. A gorgeous place to sit and watch people dance in hula skirts along with people playing the Ukalalea. The thoughts of the shopping trips your going to have to those hawaiiin stores for some new shoes and clothing.

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to walk on the sand in hawaii? Sand squishes between your toes and slightly chilled water hits your foot along with washing off the sand stuck to your feet. You simply look out in the navy blue ocean and you see small fish, sand crabs, and turtles. You can collect sea shells off of the seashore and hear the sea which seems to be living deep down inside of them. You watch as others walk by you also enjoying the sights and the air which smells of wildflowers. The wildflowers smell so strongly as you walk along the seashore you feel as if you were in a field full of nothing but wild-flowers.

The steady flow of a ukalalea that floats through the air on a breezy, summer night. It relaxs you and takes you into a world where nothing else has ever or possibly could ever take you. During the afternoon you watch the clouds overhead as they slowly float by but with a ukalalea playing you can see things you have never seen before. Once you look up to the sky you see puppies, ponys, trains, trees, cars, cats, and even train tracks. The ukalalea is a small part of being able to lay back and relax and let your mind wonder and imagine.

Without a doubt hawaii would be one of the greatest places on the plant to go shopping. Hawaiins clothes are made of diffrent materials than our clothes are made of. Their clothes in hawaii are made with such unique sense of style and in such a creative way. On a shopping trip in hawaii you would be able to buy earrings, bracelets, necklaces and even hair ties made out of grass. Shopping in hawaii you would come back with a totally diffrent sense of fashion.

In conclusion hawaii would be a magnificent place to take a vacation. In hawaii there are stores full of unique clothing. Hawaii is a place full of amazing and relaxing music. Hawaii also has a breathtaking view. "Oops! I almost forgot I have a drink waiting on the counter for me!"

Score Point: 6

This response reflects a high degree of proficiency in expository writing skills. The writer selects Hawaii as a place to visit and develops three key reasons for this choice (the breathtaking view, the music, and shopping). The writer employs narrative elements and clearly displays facility in the use of language and syntactic variety to illustrate and develop these reasons. In addition, the conclusion cleverly refers back to the writer's opening remarks. The response is complete and unified.
